

PEGGY D. MCCALL

PSI STATE PRESIDENT 2011-2013

BORN IN: San Francisco, California; spent many summers on grandparent's farm in South Georgia

EDUCATION:

Master's in post secondary education Troy University (2006); BS in elementary education, Valdosta State University in Valdosta, GA (1989); teacher support specialist; gifted endorsement; completed master teacher program run by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission

EXPERIENCE:

TEACHING AND PROFESSIONAL

Feagin Mill Middle School in Warner Robins, GA, teacher of 6th grade science and language arts classes for gifted honors students and chairman of Language Arts Department (2007 ff); Northside Middle School in Warner Robins, GA, teacher of 6th through 8th grades science classes for gifted honors students (2000-2007); Miller Elementary School, Warner Robins, GA, 4th grade teacher (1998-2000); Robins Robins Elementary School for the Department of Defense at Robins Air Force Base, GA, 5th grade teacher (1995-1998); Lakenheath Elementary School for the Department of Defense in Lakenheath, England, 4th grade teacher and grade level chairman (1992-1995); Cedar Grove Elementary School in Panama City, FL teacher of K-1st grade varying exceptionality students, 3rd and 4th grades, Title I math and language arts (1982-1992); Pine Grove Elementary School in Valdosta, GA, teacher of 4th and 6th grades (1980-82)

HONORS: Awarded Georgia Master Teacher status by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (2009); appointed to Georgia Professional Standards Commission Content Review Panel by Gov. Sonny Perdue, received Psi State Scholarship for pursuing Master's degree, received Myra Jean Ford Scholarship at the chapter level for pursuing Master's degree, received the "Bright Ideas" Grant from Flint Energies, and published in state-wide magazine (2006-2007); awarded regional "Inspiring Excellence Award" presented to an outstanding science teacher for inspiring excellence in others (2005); named "Georgia Gifted Teacher of the Year", awarded 75th Anniversary Stipend by Delta Kappa Gamma International for innovative science project, "CSI: Northside Middle", (2003-2004); named "Houston County Gifted Teacher of the Year" by Houston County Schools, GA. (2002-2003); presented Golden Apple Award by a local television station for teaching-excellence, Panama City, FL (1990); received "Joan Orr Air Force Wife of the Year" award for outstanding Air Force community involvement (1989); initiated into Delta Kappa Gamma International, named "Cedar Grove Teacher of the Year", and nominated for "Outstanding Young Woman of America" (1988)

DELTA KAPPA GAMMALOCAL CHAPTER: Gamma Omicron chairman of Professional Affairs (2008 ff), ad hoc Classroom Stipends Committee (2008-2010); Personal Growth and Services (2006-2008); served on the Membership Committee (2004-2006); served as 2nd vice president (2002-2004); president (2000-2002); 1st vice president (1998-2000), recording secretary (1996-1998); transferred to Gamma Omicron from Alpha in London, England (1995); member of Alpha chapter in London (1992-1995); transferred to Alpha in London, England (1992); initiated into Beta Beta Chapter, Panama City, FL and served on Communications Committee (1989-1992)

PSI STATE ORGANIZATION:

As state editor, updated and unveiled new look of the Psi State News (2009-2011); as committee chairman for Program of Work, developed and unveiled Support Our Sisters Program (S.O.S.) to provide classroom supplies to Society members in Louisiana who lost everything in Hurricane Katrina and provided training to chapter program of work chairmen at all six state district workshops (2007-09); served as Membership chairman, provided training at all six district workshops for chapter membership chairmen, attended Leadership I and II at Epworth by the Sea, presented "Who Wants to be a Psi State Millionaire?" and entertained as part of the "Village Teachers" at the convention; coordinated and sent a trailer of supplies to Society members in New Orleans, received Psi State Scholarship for pursuing a master's degree(2005-2007); as District III director visited all fifteen chapters in District III, planned and successfully executed a district workshop for training incoming chapter officers and committee chairmen, attended all state executive board meetings, attended the state convention and co-presented a workshop called "Show me the Money!" to encourage Society members to apply for grants and scholarships (2003-2005); attended all state executive board meetings (2001-2003); attended state executive board meetings and state convention as a chapter president (1999-2001)

REGIONAL (CONFERENCES, DUTIES, ACTIVITIES):

Attended the SE regional conference in Louisville, KY; Participated in state presidents' training sessions (2011); attended Southeast Regional Conference in Little Rock, AR, participated in editors' training and "Editors' Boot Camp," presented workshop "Geocaching" with Tennessee state president, Dee Dee Rives (2009); attended the regional conference in New Orleans, LA and attended Program of Work Training for state chairmen (2007); attended the regional conference in Williamsburg, VA, presented 75th Anniversary Stipend project at the Info Fair, participated in for state membership chairmen (2005); attended regional conference in Raleigh/Durham, NC (2003); as member of Alpha Chapter, London, attended and served as table hostess at European Regional Conference in Canterbury, England, 1995

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTIONS, DUTIES, ACTIVITIES:

Represented Psi State at international convention in New York, NY (2012); attended international convention in San Diego (2006); attended international convention in Spokane, WA, participated in editors' training, gave a workshop on geocaching with Tennessee state president, Dee Dee Rives (2010); served on the International Communications Committee (2010-2012); graduated from the Golden Gift Leadership Management Seminar in Austin, TX (2008); attended international convention in Chicago, IL and presented workshop on geocaching (2008); attended international convention in Minneapolis, MN, received a 75th Anniversary Stipend for a project "CSI: Northside Middle School" (2004)

COMMUNITY AFFILIATIONS: United Way building representative (2007-2010); Lymphoma and Leukemia Society neighborhood representative (2007 ff); Houston Medical Center volunteer with Books for Babies Project (2000-2004); founder and liaison of Miller's Mentors, a partnership between the United States Air Force 653rd CLSS Maintenance Squadron and Miller Elementary School to tutor at-risk children (1998-2000); co-founder Cedar Grove Elementary Aluminum Recycling Program that awards yearly scholarships to former students attending a local community college (1991-1992); founder and liaison of Cedar Grove Mentors, a partnership between the United States Air Force FTD 306 Squadron and Cedar Grove Elementary School to tutor at-risk children (1990-1992); Vacation Bible School director (1989)